

Presents

Arm Chair Travels

A series of talks about art, architecture & gardens overseas

Arm Chair Travels – a series of talks about art, architecture and gardens overseas on Fridays in the wintery months of July, August and September 2010.

Leading Auckland architects, designers and artists talk about the places and things they love to visit and will inspire you to visit them in the future. Nanette is bringing the Design School to town and invites you to come to listen to these inspiring travellers.

All lectures start at 12noon at the Grey Lynn Community Centre, 510 Richmond Road, Grey Lynn.

Price for each lecture is $35 and includes a light lunch. Come to one lecture or come to them all, you can choose.

These events are part of the public programme from the Nanette Cameron School of Interior Design. The school offers a range of interior design courses from 1-3 years

te tuhi
centre for the arts

For bookings call 09 5770138

vanessa@tetuhi.org.nz

cherry@tetuhi.org.nz

Friday July 23 ~ 12 noon

$35

The Weird and Wonderful Architecture of Holland

Pete Bossley

An insight into the often hidden architectural gems of Holland.

Pete has an extensive reputation in architecture and interior design, with particular experience in galleries and museums, residential and retail.

Friday July 30 ~ 12 noon

$35

Tuscan Modernism

Tony van Raat

The architecture of Toscana Moderna and the School of Giovanni Michelucci, with some remarks about other examples of mid to late 20th century architecture in Italy.

Tony is Head of Architecture at Unitec, founder of the NZ Architectural Publications Trust and Creative Director of the NZ entry to the Venice Architecture Biennale.

Friday August 6 ~ 12 noon

$35

Art In Italy

Gill Hubble

The most famous sites of Renaissance and Medieval Art - How to organise your trip, where to go, what to see.

Gill is an Auckland artist who visits Europe annually - holidaying, taking tours, painting and visiting the great art sites. She shares her knowledge, love and experiences of many wonderful places for art in Italy.

Friday August 13 ~ 12 noon

$35

Regenerating Historic Buildings in Iberia in the 21st Century

Michael Milojevic

One of two Spanish adventures in this lecture series.

Michael is Senior Lecturer in Architectural History and Theory at Auckland University with a specialty in ancient and medieval and design studios focussing on new work at historic sites.

Friday August 20 ~ 12 noon

$35

From Ruins to Galleries

Gill Hubble

Armchair tour From Ruins to Galleries in the Ancient World of the Mediterranean and Egypt.

A classical scholar, Gill has explored the ancient world by air, car, cruise ship, tour bus, sailing yacht and campervan. She shares her personal adventures and those of the many tour groups she has taken, both on and off the beaten path.

Friday August 27 ~ 12 noon

$35

Aesthetic Adventures in Spain

Sue McLean

From Granada to Guadalajara.....come for a whirlwind tour exploring some of the most inspiring historic and contemporary examples of garden design in Spain.

Sue is a garden design professional with a passion for creating gardens here in NZ and visiting them overseas. The gardens experienced on her travels continue to inspire and stimulate.

Friday September 3 ~ 12 noon

$35

2010 Milan Furniture Fair et al

Simon Carnachan

An overview of the recent 2010 Milan Furniture Fair, then an architectural and art ramble down Italy, Yugoslavia and Greece.

Simon is a prestigious innovative Auckland architect well known for his innovative use of glass, not only for walls, but roofs and floors.

Friday September 10 ~ 12 noon

$35

St Tropez From the Eyes of the Artist

Nicky Foreman

Take a trip to some of the great French galleries through the eyes of accomplished artist, Nicky Foreman.

Nicky Foreman completed a three-month residency and exhibition in Vallauris, France in 2005 and has recently returned from St Tropez, France where she exhibited. Nicky is represented by Whitespace Gallery.